Soccer students head for USA

Becca and Rachel after their sponsored head-shave

Pair's hair comes a Cropper for charity!

Report by Danielle Thompson

BIG-hearted student Becca Cropper became Becca Cropped when she decided to raise money for a worthy cause close to her heart.

The 16-year-old from Litherland opted to have a sponsored head-shave to raise awareness of autism. And she was joined in the hair-raising venture by her friend, Rachel Ward, 17 from Southport.

The plucky pals had their heads shaved last Saturday, June 15 at Hugh Baird College, Bootle, where Becca studies.

Becca told the Champion: "My little brother Charlie who is two is currently undergoing the process of being diagnosed with autism and my friend's nephew has been diagnosed with it too. We thought shaving our heads would be a good way to raise awareness of the condition – although when it came to it I was nervous."

"We have had such a lot of support, especially from other students. We have raised more than £400 already and hopefully we can pass our original target of £600."

ILLEGAL BOOZE PUB LANDLORD LOSES LICENCE

Fake vodka hoard found behind Everton bar

Report by Holly Rummens

A PUB landlord from Everton has been stripped of his premises licence after selling illegal alcohol to the public.

Robert Hannah, landlord of the Old Campfield Pub, Everton, has been visited on three separate occasions over the past 12 months by the Liverpool Alcohol and Tobacco unit over complaints received from members of the public over concerns that the spirits being sold were illegal.

In the first instance, the cellar of the Old Campfield pub was searched where illicit vodka and funnels were found, following a second complaint, Trading Standards found all three Smirnoff vodka bottles on display failed the authenticity tests.

After receiving further information, a warrant was executed on the premises which found another four bottles of vodka failing dip tests and a hoard of 80 illicit vodka bottles and 37 sambuca bottles stashed away in locked cupboards.

The Monday meeting heard how Mr Hannah had tried to transfer the license to his son, but Trading Standard officials said due to the seriousness of the offence the licence is being revoked.

Jenny Davies, enforcement officer for Trading Standards, said: "The licence holder put the public at risk."

"Tests that have been carried out elsewhere in the UK had found illegal vodka adulterated with antifreeze ingredients, which could lead to blindness when consumed."

Sgt Michael Hearty, of Merseyside Police licensing unit, said: "This was not a one-off incident, the public are purchasing unidentified liquids, so this is definitely an issue of public safety."

Mr Hannah told the hearing that his decisions were made because he was under a lot of stress since his company went into liquidation and he had his house repossessed.

Rob Cline, representing Mr Hannah, told the committee he had been experiencing personal family difficulties and took his 'eye off the ball'.

After being quizzed about who he purchased the alcohol from, Mr Hannah responded saying 'an Irish guy parked outside in a white van.'

The sub-committee took account of the fact that the premises licence holder was warned about his conduct and nothing appeared to change, and believe that the only appropriate action to take to promote public safety and prevent crime, is to revoke the premise's licence.

Man in £1m Class A drugs plot is jailed

Stephen Kearns

A WALTON man has been sentenced to 15 years imprisonment after being involved in a £1million a year plot to smuggle drugs from Liverpool to Plymouth.

Stephen Kearns, 30, from Hornby Place, was sentenced by Judge Paul Darlow at Plymouth Crown Court on Monday, June 17, for conspiring to supply Class A drugs.

The jury also found Elliot Barlow, 24, Lenham Way, Speke, and his younger brother Carl Barlow, guilty of the same offence, which saw thousands of pounds of heroin, cocaine and cannabis being dealt from Merseyside to Plymouth.

The brothers will be sentenced at a later date.

In one operation, 3kg of cocaine, 1,400 wraps of crack cocaine and 255 wraps of heroin with a street value of £175,000, were found concealed in a car on the M5, all destined for Plymouth.

Judge Paul Darlow said: "The size and extent of this conspiracy

Gang who sent narcotics to Plymouth put behind bars would have had a very damaging effect on the streets of Plymouth."

The first breakthrough of Operation Rio came back in April 2011 when Alison Bates, 43, from Mintor Road, Kirkby was stopped whilst travelling to Plymouth where she was caught with 50 grams of crack cocaine.

Police later found Bates had made 46 drug trips from Liverpool over the past 11 months.

Her arrest led officers to other gang members, including taxi driver John Cavanagh, 50, from Barbrook Way, Walton. Officers tracked Cavanagh who led them to the Merseyside principle leader, Kearns.

The Plymouth ringleader, Wayne Harle Stephens, 56, was sentenced to 14 years and 10 months for being found guilty of conspiring to supply Class A drugs and possessing cannabis with intent to supply.

James Griffin, 19, East Lancashire Road, regularly had drug users telephoning him to organise drug deals in Plymouth. Griffin admitted to conspiring to supply Class A drugs.

Monday, June 10.

A post mortem examination found she had died as a result of neck injuries.

The scene has been sealed off for forensic examination and house-to-house enquires have been carried out.

A Merseyside Police spokesperson said: "The victim's family have been informed and family liaison officers have been appointed to provide support to them at this difficult time. RNLI get 'Smart' to beat thieves

Report by Ollie Cowan

ROYAL National Lifeboat Institution (RNLI) lifeguards in Sefton are using SmartWater to help protect vital lifesaving equipment after thieves targeted the charity earlier in the year.

SmartWater is a liquid which is painted onto valuable items with each bottle containing an individual forensic code. The liquid can only be seen under ultraviolet light and any marked items can be traced back to their owners.

The RNLI, which provides lifeguard cover in conjunction with Sefton Council, has started to use the technology after thieves stole four quad bikes in February used by lifeguards for their beach patrols in the borough. Police recovered two of the bikes but the other vehicles remain unaccounted for at a cost of £5,000 each.

All the equipment being used by RNLI lifeguards for their patrols on Sefton's beaches is now protected by SmartWater.

SmartWater chief executive, Phil Cleary, said: "RNLI lifeguards carry out critical, lifesaving work and it is therefore imperative that everything possible is done to protect vital equipment from the risk of theft. The liquid provides robust forensic traceability, which has aided over 1000 criminal convictions. Anyone attempting to steal RNLI equipment in Sefton therefore faces a significantly increased threat of capture and conviction."

Chris Ward, RNLI lifeguard manager, added: "The fact that our lifesaving equipment is protected gives our lifeguards extra peace of mind that they will be able to continue their vital roles of saving lives at sea while ensuring that people have a safe and enjoyable visit to Sefton's beaches."

Surf and Slurp at L30 Community Centre

BOOTLE based social enterprise, Sandbox Digital, are bringing a new Internet cafe experience to the L30 Community Centre.

Surf and Slurp is a Friday drop-in taking place throughout the summer for local residents to go and brush up on their Internet skills or just surf the web for latest news, shopping or job searches.

Managing director Helen Stephens said: "The changes to benefits and the move to online services means that those people not using the Internet are getting left behind, so we are creating a comfortable friendly environment for people to dip their toe in and have a go at surfing the web."

Tea and coffee is freely available and if you stop by in the morning you might even be able to grab a bacon sandwich from the centre's weekly coffee morning in the main hall.

Surf and Slurp is running every Friday through summer and is funded by the Big Lottery Awards for All programme as part of the Get on IT project awarded to Sandbox.

Helen added: "The L30 Community Centre is a great place to hold this drop in, the staff and visitors have created a real family like community and it's a pleasure to teach here."

As well as the drop-in there will be a variety of short workshops taking place throughout the summer on a variety of Internet topics such as Facebook, Skype, online shopping, eBay, and more. Just check the timetable at the centre for dates.

Family to compete in Race for Life to help young Toby

Diane Mackie, Tracey Brockett and Rubie Brockett with Toby Haggerty Code NA

Report by David Raven

A FAMILY are pulling together to raise funds for a remarkable two-year-old who is battling brain cancer.

Brave Toby Haggerty was diagnosed with a life-threatening brain tumour in June last year after visiting hospital suffering from a series of headaches.

Against all the odds, he battled through and survived a major seven-hour operation to remove the tumour followed by intense chemotherapy, a stem cell transplant and radiotherapy for months afterwards.

He has so far come out on top with his battle against cancer but the strength of the same treatment that saved his life has left him with severe disabilities.

Toby is now unable to walk, has a one-sided body weakness and facial palsy, he is unable to speak, unable to hear out of one ear and cannot swallow fluids.

Furthermore, his steroid treatment has caused him to gain a lot of weight, which adds to his mobility problems.

In order for Toby to walk and gain a better quality of life, he requires a Bell Mobility walker, which costs a staggering £983.

Several members of his family, from Bootle, are now taking part in the Race for Life at Aintree Racecourse with funds being split between Cancer Research UK and to help Toby receive his walker.

Those taking part are Diane Mackie, 60 and her daughter, Tracey Brockett, 42 and granddaughter Rubie Brockett, aged four.

Tracey said: "Toby is such a brave little man and his courage has inspired us to do everything we can to help him out."

Toby's mum Joanne added: "Toby is a little fighter and although he is only two he is learning to communicate again through sign language. Our dream is to see him walk once again."

A SERIES of summer games are set to hit the streets.

Sefton Council in partnership with the Friends of Alexandra and Coronation Parks are launching the summer Street Games programme for 2013.

Sporting champion, Chris McDermott, who competed in the London Olympics for Team GB in Handball, will be at the launch at Coronation Park on Friday, June 21 at 6pm.

Activities will include kayaking, football, tennis and multi-sports. A circuit training coach will also be in the park to lead parents and children in fitness sessions on the new Green Gym equipment that was recently installed in the Park.

The launch will lead to a whole new programme of free sports and fitness activities in parks across the borough during the summer months targeting eight to 18-year-olds.

Details of all activities taking place can be found on posters put up in parks and on www.sefton.gov.uk.

The following evening (June 22) the focus changes to all things wild, when Community Parks Officers and the Friends of Waterloo Seafront Gardens host an evening of Bats and Moths in the Seafront Gardens.

Many parks provide a home for wildlife, and new wildflower meadows and longer grass areas encourage insects and other animals such as bats to feed on them. The event starts at 9pm at Marine Terrace, opposite the Royal Hotel.

On Sunday, June 23 at Marine Terrace, the focus turns to butterflies with a walk at 11am.

Fundraiser remembers pupil who lost his life at Hillsborough

Report by David Raven

A SCHOOL has raised over £1,000 in memory of a former pupil who died in the Hillsborough disaster.

Sacred Heart student Steven Robinson lost his life on April 15 in 1989 after poor stadium organisation resulted in a crush that killed 96 people.

To honour Steven, Sacred Heart held a collection which raised £1,106 for the Hillsborough Family Support Group to help them in their legal battle for justice.

Chairman of the group Margaret Aspinall said: "On behalf of the Hillsborough Family Support Group I thank all of the staff and pupils for this wonderful donation."

Steven's younger brother Peter, pictured with Steven, presented the cheque to the charity.

Margaret added: "As you all know we had a long and stressful 24 year fight to get to the truth but support from everyone along the way has been very much appreciated."

"The year 2012 was a fantastic year for us as not only was the truth revealed by the panel but the despicable verdicts were quashed."

"As we now move on to our next battle for justice and accountability, it is good to know that we have your support and that you are continuing to keep your pupils aware of the events of Hillsborough."

The Robinson family also thanked pupils for their support and there are now plans to have a memorial bench installed at the school in memory of Steven.

Head of RE David Moorhead said: "I think it is very important as a Christian community that we stand up and fight against injustice. I would like to thank everyone for being so generous and pay respect to the Robinson family, whose suffering is so great."

Procter Dance school shortlisted for awards

Report by Louisa Austin

PROCTER Dance Academy in Crosby has been shortlisted for the Dance School of the Year Awards.

The awards, organised by International Dance Supplies, are judged on business results, contributions to dance and the local community. Procter was up against entries from dance schools all over the world.

Anne Walker MBE, chief executive of International Dance Supplies and founder of the Dance School of the Year Awards said: "The number of schools who entered was phenomenal, and the standards incredibly high so we have had a very hard time selecting the shortlist, however each of the shortlisted schools stood out as great ambassadors for the dance industry."

Winners will be announced at the end of June with the overall winner receiving a £1,000 spending spree with International Dance Supplies and two tickets for the International Dance Teacher Conference at The Royal Ballet School in August 2014.

Lorna Procter of Procter Dance Academy said: "We are extremely honoured and excited to have been shortlisted for Dance School of The Year. It is a credit to all pupils and staff."

Chance to get your hands on iconic seats

Report by David Raven

FANS of film nostalgia can get their hands on the iconic Plaza seats as the cinema prepares itself for a new £28,000 upgrade.

The community cinema based in Waterloo will be bringing modern seating to screens 2 and 3 with built-in cup holders.

Last year bosses invested £50,000 in new seats on top of the £150,000 digital and sound upgrade.

Now they will also be going one step further by installing sound-proofing in all screens to improve the quality of the cinematic experience.

The cinema is also still running its Raising the Roof campaign which has a target of £72,000 for a much-needed new roof, an impressive £25,000 has been raised so far.

Bosses are looking for anyone who can help with affordable scaffolding to be placed around three sides of the building.

Cinema manager Martin Fol said: "The Plaza is a unique place to enjoy a film and the aim is to bring it back to the way it looked in 1939. "The Plaza has been providing a service to the community now for 17 years and throughout those years it has been run 100% by volunteers."

"None of this would have been possible without the total dedication of Jan Dunn who has been there from day one. She has been an inspiration to all volunteers and we owe her a massive debt of gratitude." "We celebrate 75 years of showing films in 2014 and aim to celebrate this with numerous events culminating in a Nostalgia Night in September."

Anyone interested in helping the cinema or buying some of the seats can email martin.fol@plazacinema.org.uk

Petrol thief given suspended sentence for third breach of his work order

A PETROL thief who breached an unpaid work order was warned by a district judge that if he missed it one more time he would go to jail.

Francis Meekin, 47, of Chelsea Road, Litherland, was sentenced in November last year for stealing a registered number plate, going equipped for theft, and making off from a petrol station without paying, as well as for breaching a conditional discharge for cultivating cannabis.

The community sentence he received was changed from unpaid work to a curfew, when he claimed he could not work due to an injury. He then requested to go back to unpaid work and received 70 hours in April to be completed at weekends, as he'd started working for DHL as a lorry driver.

As he appeared at Sefton Magistrates on June 12, probation officer Pamela O'Brien told the court that Meekin had completed 28.5 hours of the 70 hours work. He'd been given a warning on May 12 after he'd phoned in to say he couldn't attend work because he was "done in". Then on May 18 he said he had to leave work early to fix a car windscreen but didn't return the following day. When asked later to provide a receipt for the repair, he admitted that he'd not done it.

This was the third breach of his community orders, she said, after earlier breaches in January and March.

District Judge Mike Abelson said: "I am going to spell this out to you in the simplest of terms."

"I do not take sick notes and I do not take excuses. I just lock people up when they do not do their community service."

Re-sentencing him to four months jail, suspended for 12 months, he was ordered to do 100 hours of unpaid work.

Judge Abelson said: "If you feel you are not able to comply I will give you four months in jail."

Adding: "And if you miss one appointment you are going to straight to jail."

How persecuted Hans fled Nazis to start a new life in Southport

'In one fell swoop, Hans lost his entire family to genocide...'

He changed his name to Dennis Windham and was town's first Kosher butcher, but community never forgot his struggle against anti-Semitism. His grandson DAN WINDHAM (left) takes up the story

ON the anniversary of what would have been Anne Frank's 84th birthday, the Atkinson in Southport is staging a special exhibition about her life and the Holocaust.

The event, in partnership with the Anne Frank Trust, will also allow visitors to view a photographic exhibition by John Cowell which traces the history of Southport's Jewish community.

The photographs recall the 120-year history of this proud community, focusing on prominent individuals, important events and instances of anti-Semitism they encountered.

The exhibition showcases photos of important individuals in the resort's Jewish community; including Henschel Samuelson who was the first Jewish man in Southport.

It also displays snapshots of Dr Sydney Hepworth, the first Jewish Mayor of Southport and Dennis Windham, the Kosher Butcher who escaped from Nazi Germany, finding freedom in this North West Victorian town.

The last name on that list was not only an important figure in Southport's Jewish history, but also played a crucial role in my own family's history.

This is because Dennis Windham was my grandfather.

Whilst I am fully aware of my grandfather's fascinating journey to England and his important position as the founder of the Windham family, Cowell's exhibition provides the perfect opportunity for myself, and the rest of Southport, to fully understand his importance in the Jewish Community.

Born to a Jewish family as Hans Windmüller, my Grandfather's crossing from Germany to Southport was not a particularly easy or pleasant one.

Due to their religion and Germany's Nazi regime at the time, Hans and his family were the subject of constant racial hatred, scapegoating and persecution.

The Windham family outside their Kosher butcher shop

Sadly they subsequently found themselves in one of Adolf Hitler's concentration camps.

life, the rest of his family were not as fortunate and tragically lost their lives in Hitler's pursuit of his Final Solution.

In one fell swoop, Hans lost his entire family to genocide.

Eventually, Hans made it to England, changed his name, married Syrilla Rose Samuels and started his new life as the Kosher Butcher in Southport, opening shops in Hill Street and Bold Street.

Whilst Dennis Windham's importance in Southport's Jewish community stemmed, in part, from his position as the Kosher Butcher, the community never forgot about his valiant struggle against persecution and racial hatred.

John Cowell's exhibition is a perfect opportunity to celebrate and take pride in Southport's Jewish history, but it also serves as a poignant reminder that anti-Semitism, like other forms of racial and religious intolerance is a curse in any society.

On a personal level, the inclusion of the photograph of my grandfather in this collection, is a proud moment for my family, not only honouring Dennis's memory and valiant struggle, but also the memory of my grandmother, Rose Windham, whom we sadly lost this year.

• The Anne Frank Exhibition is at the Atkinson until July 5.

Soccer students head for the USA

Report by Holly Rummens

OVER 100 young football students will be seeing stars... and stripes when they leave Merseyside and Sefton and head to the USA to embark on their aspiring careers.

The youngsters are all students of the David Campbell Soccer school, based in Crosby, which runs the National Qualification in Professional Football Coaching courses, where direct job introductions around the world are offered as part of the course.

Already it has seen hundreds of 16-19 year olds start work in America, China, Australia, India, Canada and across the UK.

The course which is officially hailed as 'The best in the UK' by City and Guilds is held at schools across the North West and Northern Ireland where it attracts hundreds of students with promises of a realistic chance of obtaining employment at the end of the course in the much sought after football or sport industry.

Creator of the programme David Campbell, who played for Northern Ireland against Brazil in the 1986 World Cup Finals and has gained the highest award in world football the UEFA Pro Licence Coach said: "It is heart warming that young people can access a really enjoyable course complete with the work placement opportunities we offer and on completion obtain amazing job opportunities through us."

The final interviews for the 2013 intake are being offered now. For further details or to book an interview, call the Soccer Hotline on 0151 474 8811.

Health boost for schools

by Louisa Austin

SCHOOLS across Sefton are being given £30,000 to improve the health and wellbeing of its pupils.

Sefton's Public Health in partnership with Sefton's Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs) is offering the money to help schools work on healthy weight.

There is an equal share of the £30,000 available to north (£15,000) and south (£15,000) Sefton schools.

The funding will be allocated via the seven School Partnerships in Sefton and aims to enable the partnerships to either start or build on work already being done around healthy weight in their area.

Dr Janet Atherton, Sefton's director of public health, said: "Currently one in ten reception children and a quarter of our 10 to 11-year-olds are overweight or obese."

"Sefton's Public Health is working with the community to help reduce this and we have shown improvements in this year's National Child

Measurement (NCMP) results.

"We are allocating this money to schools because we need to do more from a young age as research shows that if your child is overweight now, they are more likely to grow up to be an overweight adult."

"This can lead to health problems in later life, so it is important for us all to tackle it now."

Dr Niall Leonard, North Sefton CCG chair, added: "Sefton's GPs are concerned about children in the borough being overweight and obese as they are more likely to become overweight and obese in adulthood."

"This is serious because you are more likely to develop conditions such as diabetes, heart disease and depression."

"We know that parents are key to ensuring their children are a healthy weight and as doctors we also recognise that teachers with their knowledge of children and their families are in a fantastic position to support this."

"This is why we are offering our support to the scheme and we hope it will help reverse the trend in unhealthy weight we are seeing in Sefton."

Health chief's praise for MMR campaigners

Sefton school nurses Karen Thornhill, Angela Thompson, Susan Moon, Debra Yardley, Geraldine Touhey and Kerry Guthrie celebrate the successful campaign. Code NA

Report by Ollie Cowan

SEFTON'S Director of Public Health is thanking GPs, school nurses, head teachers and teaching staff for their support in the latest MMR vaccination campaign to protect young people from catching measles.

The campaign was launched in March and is already responsible for vaccinating hundreds of young people across Sefton.

Through the initiative, children, teenagers and young adults who have not had two doses of MMR are invited by their GP to have a free jab at the GP practice.

School nurses are also visiting secondary schools to vaccinate young people who are not fully vaccinated. Community clinics will also be held across the borough over the coming weeks to vaccinate young people.

Uptake of MMR among young children is now very high with 92% getting two doses of the vaccine by their fifth birthday. However, many older children and teenagers missed out. An estimated 5,200 10 to 16-year-olds in Sefton need one or two doses of MMR to be fully protected.

Dr Janet Atherton, Sefton's Director of Public Health, said: "We had a large outbreak of measles in Merseyside last year and 90 Sefton children and young people have become ill with measles since January 2012. The response to our campaign to prevent future outbreaks has been really encouraging to date with teachers, nurses and GPs actively supporting the work to protect our young people and we have had good response from parents and young people themselves."

"The important message is that the vaccine could save your child's life. Measles is a serious illness and can lead to serious complications. Parents of unvaccinated children, as well as older teenagers and young adults, who have missed out, should urgently make an appointment with their GP to get vaccinated as soon as possible. If you are unsure whether you or your child is fully vaccinated, contact your GP who will have a record."

For more information call the MMR Immunisation Team on 0151 247 6345/46.

Boy's bike stolen by thug as he cycled in the park

By Holly Rummens

A YOUNG boy had his bicycle stolen in Walton Hall Park by a man who threatened to injure him with a knife.

The 12-year-old was cycling in the park at about 4.45pm on Sunday, June 2 when the incident happened.

The thief told the boy that he had a knife though one was not seen. He then took the bike from the boy and cycled away.

Although uninjured, the victim was left very shaken following his ordeal.

The offender is described as being white and was wearing a hat, balaclava and jacket. He had freckles and bloodshot eyes.

The bicycle was a black specialised bike with red stripes, and 29-inch wheels with silver spokes.

DC Andrew Fearon of Merseyside Police said: "This is an extremely serious offence and the victim is understandably shaken and it has had a serious effect on his quality of life. It is unacceptable that a youth has the confidence to walk the streets, threaten and rob a member of the public without consequences.

"This is a very distinctive, specialist bike and I would appeal to anyone who has seen or is offered the bike to contact the police.

"I would also like to remind people that it is an offence to receive stolen goods and anyone who knowingly purchases stolen goods will be arrested and dealt with accordingly."

Anybody who may have witnessed this incident or anyone with information is asked to contact Merseyside Police on 0151 777 4094 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 where any information will be treated in confidence.

Good for jobs, bad for traffic

Re: the development of the Liverpool2 Seaforth Docks.

This is very good news for the possible 5,000 new jobs which could be created but I am concerned about the transport infrastructure which is already heavily overloaded.

Most lorries travelling to and from Seaforth Docks to reach the motorway network go along Church Road and Dunningsbridge Road.

I don't know of any plans to improve the roadwork system to compensate for the increase in traffic.

A rail freight line from the docks to distribute the containers could also be built, which would alleviate the road traffic.

Residents are being misled over how Local Plan will affect them

We have been fighting the Local Plan for over 12 months and have highlighted all the flaws in the plan and how the data they are using to justify the numbers is out of date.

We have been warning people for some time about them being misled by Sefton Council and indeed have emailed a great deal of our evidence to all the councillors in Sefton, only to be ignored by them.

We have been accused of scaremongering, being NIMBYs and much more yet everything we highlighted back in August of last year is in the preferred options report.

Unfortunately, people can be very apathetic if it is not on the doorstep and only when it affects them will they do anything.

We have highlighted how it will affect everyone in Sefton and how Formby and Maghull/Lydiate were top of the list.

We have been trying to pull Sefton residents together as it is an issue that concerns all. Our evidence mounts on a daily basis. It is disgraceful how the residents are being treated.

We are currently working with the residents of Maghull and Lydiate and will be putting on a public meeting to highlight to the exactly what is going on, why and who benefits.

Whilst our organization formed when developers came out in Formby our main aim is to challenge the Local Plan and its mass release of green belt.

If you would like to discuss anything with us then please contact me.

We intend to fully challenge the Local Plan at a public enquiry and are even considering going down the road of a judicial review.

Funds need to be spent quickly

Reading the minutes of the last Crosby Area Committee it would appear that the committee has just over £39,000 left in it's coffers.

I am sure there is many worthwhile local community projects that this money could be spent on.

More importantly I would get this funding spent quickly.

I believe the Crosby area and its needs will be the sacrificed to preserve as many services as possible within Bootle.

With the LibDems only concern being Southport, and the Labour party's Bootle, Crosby will once again be the town squeezed, despite contributing some of the highest levels of council tax receipts in the borough.

Sainsbury's are only interested in making profits

Re: Crosby Village.

In my opinion Sainsbury's are quite prepared to leave it as an eyesore whilst they are making nice fat profits.

They are not interested in the community of Crosby, only the money we spend in their store.

They spat the dummy out when refused permission to build a monster store and are not interested in sorting out the mess they have left the village in.

If the people of Crosby spent their money elsewhere maybe, Sainsbury's would develop a conscience and do the decent thing. Surely Sefton Council could do more to resolve this situation!

Frustrated at the amount of junk mail I receive

I would like to express my concern about the huge quantities of junk mail that I am receiving at my home.

I would like to see the reactions form others regarding this situation.

I am at the point now where I get noticeably more junk mail than I do real letters

It is a concern for the environment for me as well.

I am literally filling my recycling bag with the letters each week, which are sometimes entirely from takeaway shops

Can it be stopped?

Is anyone else feeling frustrated about this?

Mrs B Taylor,
 Seaforth.

EU is not the UK's best option

It was predictable to hear from that ardent EU cheer-leader, Chris Davies, Lib-Dem MEP, banging on about how the EU is good for us.

The facts are quite different. There are 27 member states in the EU and are more than 156 countries who are not. And the single market is actually shrinking while the rest of the world is growing.

As a result, we now export more of our goods outside the EU, which is good for jobs as well as our balance sheet.

And if it were not for the open borders policy we would have a greater number of employment for our own nationals. Our membership costs the UK taxpayer over £53million every day, plus £billions more in regulations and tax costs, money that should be spent to the benefit of Britain and the British people and not squandered on an corrupt and undemocratic institution (they have not had their books signed off in 18 years).

There is a much bigger world outside the inward looking EU offering greater opportunities and prosperity, which is what Britain should be part of.

Phillip Griffiths, UKIP North West

Recycle your trash for PDSA

What's that saying about one person's trash being someone else's treasure?

Pet charity PDSA is appealing to your animal-loving readers to look again at old, half-forgotten items and donate them to help sick and injured pets during Recycle Week.

Used stamps, spent printer cartridges, old mobile phones and foreign coins – currently gathering dust in homes and offices – can gain a new lease of life with PDSA.

Clothing and unwanted gifts are also welcome donations to PDSA stores. By recycling all of these items, the charity's friends and supporters can help raise funds to help more pets in need of vets in your community.

Recycling everyday items, such as mobile phones and ink cartridges, is a great way for companies, schools and offices to get involved.

Holding a mobile phone amnesty could be one way to get all those redundant mobiles out of those old dusty boxes!

I can live, and even enjoy life, without the internet

I HAVE just returned from my latest holiday cruise aboard my boat, 'Manxman', in which she completed just over 400 miles through the Norfolk and Suffolk Broads.

The whole holiday went extremely well. A highlight was of course a visit to the chippy in the village of Reedham – I mentioned it after my November hols if you remember, saying that it was possibly the best such emporium I have ever had the pleasure of eating fish and chips from.

And guess what? The Reedham chippy now sports a framed copy of the 'Dog' article proudly on its wall! I really did feel honoured.

But this brings me to the idea of what the necessities of life really are for me – and for others too.

Researchers have compiled a list of what are apparently the top 20 things they could not do without. Boats and fish and chips do not figure, but the iPhone and the car do – prominently.

Apparently 33% of folk claim they would be bereft without smartphones – and, worryingly, most people think any material item is replaceable.

My boat isn't for a start. Neither was my first car or the tiny model aircraft talisman I lost.

Now I have no beef with people who believe a 'toy phone' somehow adds to their personal happiness.

Whatever turns you on. And I am not looking for converts to my 1950s-style existence without these expensive gadgets.

But I am living proof that you still CAN get by in this modern world without them.

My experience has been that just so long as you don't go round boasting that you are computer illiterate and have no idea why broadband is so vital to the average household that my poor, old-fangled TV set has continually to be readjusted to cater for their need, they can't guess that I am any different from them.

Unbelievable though it must seem to the majority of people, I can and do get by without recourse to the world wide web.

I manage to survive, get about and be understood.

Oh, and still miraculously manage often to enjoy myself into the bargain.

The only fly in my particular ointment at the moment is email.

It is becoming increasingly difficult to get anyone to use the now outmoded phone – and the Royal Mail has effectively priced itself out of the personal communications market.

So what I need (regretfully but true) is a means of sending and receiving email without the whole paraphernalia of computers, iPhones or tablets (which I guess are some kind of mobile computer).

Any suggestions gratefully received.

I feel almost guilty about this – but in a way this is how I think things should be.

Just as I have accepted the idea of using a laptop and memory stick to replace the old typewriter, I can, through necessity, accept e-mails as a necessary fact of life.

Still, I suppose watching folk who should know better wandering down a street tapping away at their iPhones to discover something I obviously should know but never will and bumping into other seekers after truth enhances my day no end – so that's alright then.

Novel way to beat the bullies

Report by Holly Rummens

BRITAIN'S Got Talent finalists Twist and Pulse surprised students at Waterloo Primary School for their admirable anti-bullying campaign.

Twist and Pulse announced the news to Waterloo Primary School, Crosby, on Thursday June 6, informing them that they have been selected to attend a special event in London at Barclay's Headquarters to celebrate their anti-bullying programme.

While the dancing duo were at the school, they helped produce a short film that will be played at the final presentation on July 8 and they also gave the children a small performance of their new dance routine.

Waterloo Primary School has been part of a nationwide peer led anti-bullying programme run by the Diana Award Charity. Last year students and staff from Waterloo Primary attended a training event in Liverpool which gave the group campaigning skills, ideas and inspiration to ensure their school remains bully free and a safe place to be.

At the Barclays event, five anti-bullying teams from across the United Kingdom will share their fantastic anti-bullying practice with an audience of special guests.

Sarah Maciver, deputy head teacher of the school, said of this achievement: "Our Anti-bullying Ambassadors have helped bring a real feel good factor to our school and the local community. Through assemblies, Smile Days and random acts of kindness, their never ending enthusiasm ensures our children feel safe and happy at Waterloo Primary School.

"We are so pleased to have learnt many of these ideas through the programme and look forward to the event in July".

The students will also receive the Diana Anti-Bullying Champion Award at the event in July. This award is given to inspire young people who tackle bullying in schools and communities.

Alex Holmes, Anti-Bullying programme manager at the Diana Award said: "Young people spend an average of 11,000 hours of their lives in full time education.

"It's so important that every hour is a happy hour. The programme is all about equipping young people with the skills to change their school through simple techniques like smiles, compliments and kindness."

Nominate schools for top Educate Awards

THE Educate Awards are back for another year and preparations are already well underway with the judging panel recently released.

Liverpool and Sefton schools only have 100 days left to nominate their school for their successful achievements over the past school year.

Organisers at the Educate Awards released the details of the judging panel for the 2013 ceremony, with a selection of the most important names in education.

Each have been chosen for their expertise, commitment to public service and ability to serve as positive role models.

Kim O'Brien, executive editor of Educate Magazine said: "The judges' individual backgrounds will provide a balanced and informed adjudication process for choosing the winners."

Judges include Mark Beedles, managing director of Connex Education, who are the sponsors for event, is responsible for placing supply teachers, teaching assistants, nursery nurses and supervisors into schools across the North West.

Also judging will be Lisa Murphy, head of primary teacher education at Liverpool John Moores University, who works closely with a number of primary schools across Merseyside and is a member of various local and national education committees.

These awards are a celebration of the successes and achievements taking place within Liverpool and Sefton schools. Entry in to the awards is open to all public funded and independent private schools, including primary, secondary and special schools.

Schools have up until September 20 to get their final nominations in, for more details visit educateawards.co.uk

TMS up for the cup!

Report by David Raven

A YOUNG football team are celebrating after beating some of the best teams in the country to pick up the prestigious UK Champions League trophy.

TMS FC Under 11s – which stands for Technique Movement Skill Football Club – won the football tournament based in Middlesbrough.

Teams who win their leagues or finish second in major cities from Newcastle to London are automatically entered for the tournament.

TMS, based in the Maghull area, won the Hightown League last year to qualify and brought a squad of 15 players down where they played seven 11-a-side games lasting 26 minutes each game.

They beat Middlesbrough side Stockton in the final after scoring with just three minutes to go.

The team is managed by John Johanson and Paul McEboy who both praised the youngsters for their brave efforts.

John, whose son Joseph plays for the team, said: "It's amazing, the lads have all been together since they were five years old."

"We went down there to give the kids some experience and to develop their skills but we played excellent. They kept passing and moving – we have always taught the kids to keep making short passes at a high tempo and they truly were amazing."

Man bailed after vehicle accident

A LYDIATE man has pleaded not guilty to five charges related to the taking of a vehicle which was involved in an accident.

Philip Roberts, 27, of Mallory Avenue, appeared at Sefton Magistrates on June 7 and was charged with aggravating vehicle taking, driving while disqualified, driving with no insurance, failing to stop at the scene of a road accident where injury had occurred, and failing to report an accident.

He was bailed to appear at the same court for a trial on August 5.

Shape up in the kitchen – or risk food poisoning

Report by Danielle Thompson

HOME cooks in Sefton are being warned to shape up in the kitchen – after 82% of people surveyed in the North West confessed to one or more bad habits that put them at risk of food poisoning.

The Food Standards Agency survey revealed that nearly one in four people admitted they still eat food that had been dropped on the floor – and more than one in five confessed they don't wash their hands properly before preparing food.

Shockingly, over a third don't check 'use by' dates, with 87% of people wrongly using the 'sniff test' and 62% just checking the colour – although this will not always reveal whether food is safe to eat.

Unlike 'best before' dates, 'use by' dates are based on scientific food safety testing, but 39% of those questioned said they would eat food after the use-by date.

There are more than a million cases of food poisoning each year, resulting in 20,000 hospitalisations and 500 deaths.

Despite these nasty habits, 94% believe they've never given family or friends food poisoning – and if they do fall ill themselves, only 6% of people in the North West consider whether the cleanliness of their own kitchen is the cause.

Better news is that 97% of respondents, wash chopping boards in between preparing raw and ready-to-eat food and almost 78% stick to the recommended 48 hours for keeping leftovers in the fridge.

Dave Tilleray, assistant director of community services said: "Food poisoning cases are often caused by food prepared or eaten at home."

"By taking more care in the kitchen, people can avoid becoming ill through food poisoning."

Liverpool 'after the apocalypse'

A digitally altered shot of the Liver buildings by PlayStation.

THIS eerie image shows how Liverpool's famous waterfront could look in the aftermath of an apocalypse.

PlayStation programmers have digitally altered images of British landmarks to illustrate what they would look like in the dying days of civilization. One of the famous liver birds seems to have taken flight while the clock itself is nowhere to be seen above a grimy River Mersey.

The image was released this week as part of a portfolio of shots of altered British landmarks to promote the upcoming PlayStation game The Last of Us.

In the game, humanity is struck down by the fictional Cordyceps virus.

Skatepark and local firms rally for Chernobyl children

Report by Ollie Cowan

RAMPWORX Skatepark in Netherton treated a group of children from Chernobyl to a special fun day of activities recently.

The event was organised by the Chernobyl Children's Lifeline charity which helps families affected by the 1986 nuclear plant disaster.

The children enjoyed a free two hour coaching session with professional BMX rider Zack Williams the Rampworx facility, which is itself a registered children's charity.

He showed the children how to navigate the steep ramps, obstacles and how to perform the perfect wheelie.

The children then presented the staff members with hand-made gifts from their home town which was described by Tony Berry, Rampworx community and sports development manager as an emotional moment for all the staff and coaches.

He added: "To make their visit the most amazing experience, the Rampworx team called around their fantastic friends from local businesses and secured a series of donations for the children."

These included a tour of Liverpool Football Club with a free bus to transport them there and back, and free pizzas and cakes.

Rampworx plans to make this an annual event, to give disadvantaged children with a once in a lifetime experience whilst showcasing the city of Liverpool and its many tourist attractions.

Thousands to watch Sefton Triathlon

Pupils from St. Mary's College and the organisers of the Sefton Triathlon are looking forward to this year's event in Crosby on June 29. Code NA

Report by David Raven

ORGANISERS are finalising arrangements for the 2013 Sefton Triathlon at the end of the month – claimed to be the largest community triathlon in the UK.

The three-discipline Crosby classic – organised in association with St. Mary's College and New Start – will take place on Saturday, June 29 and is expected to attract thousands of spectators to the waterfront area around Crosby Leisure Centre.

Entries are still being accepted for the event which attracts hundreds of triathletes every year. In 2012 the ages of the competitors ranged from seven to 74, with some people travelling from as far afield as Southampton and London to take part.

The athletes are required to complete a 150-metre swim, a five-kilometre bike ride and a 2.5-kilometre run along the coastline.

Adults can compete individually or as part of a team, and there are also four age groups for children and separate categories for veterans and participants with disabilities.

Many of the competitors use the triathlon as an opportunity to help good causes, with over £300,000 raised for charity since its inception.

The organisations that will benefit from this year's event are the British Heart Foundation, Liverpool Heartbeat, Macmillan Cancer Support and Cash for Kids.

Since 2010, the triathlon has been run in memory of Liverpool man John Hulley, one of the instigators of the Olympic movement in Britain, who organised a series of Olympic festivals in the city in the 1860s.

St. Mary's College principal, Mike Kennedy, commented: "Everyone at St. Mary's is very proud of the school's association with this prestigious event which is now in its 11th year. "The triathlon is a great family day out, and the hope is that this year even more people will attend what is always a truly inspirational and enjoyable event."

"I would like to pay tribute to chairman Steve Griffin and his committee colleagues for all the hard work they do on the organisation of this event for the benefit of competitors, spectators and charities."

A balloon service was held in memory of loved ones who had passed away and Everton District Pipe Band provided the solemn soundtrack.

Reverend Brian Astill said: "I felt it was a very touching and moving tribute to loved ones who have passed away especially the heart shaped balloons. David, Claire and their staff showed how warm and friendly they are on the day and in my experience this is how they always are."

Plea for changes to youth training

Report by Holly Rummens

THERE are calls to give local young people better preparation for the job market as the latest set of unemployment figures are released.

With youth unemployment still at worrying levels, SkillsActive, the sector skills council for Active Leisure, Learning and Well-being says vocational training needs to have a more prominent role in careers advice if young people are to hear the full story of what is available to them after leaving full time education.

SkillsActive's comments follow the publication of a recent report from the National Careers Council which calls for a "much-needed culture change" in career guidance for young people.

Ian Taylor, chief executive of SkillsActive, said: "Too many young people leave schools in the region with a distorted view of the key ways of securing work, which is massively unhelpful both for young people and potential employers. There needs to be a greater commitment to young people and advising them of their futures. With youth unemployment still at concerning levels, we owe it the next generation's workforce to tool them up with the resources they need to land a job that is both fulfilling and rewarding."

Get on the property ladder with Keepmoat

With style and space in abundance, Keepmoat's Regency Park development is perfect for househunters looking to get onto the property ladder.

With two, three and four bedroom homes on offer, the development is ideal for families and couples alike, and with the latest government finance scheme your new home in Bootle could cost you less than you may have first imagined.

Launched earlier this year, the government's Help to Buy initiative is already helping homebuyers secure their dream homes. The scheme means purchasers need only save a 5% deposit and find a mortgage for 75% of the property price. The remaining 20% of the property price is covered by an equity loan, which can be paid back at any time, or on the sale of the home.

Thanks to Help to Buy a three bedroom, semi detached Windsor property on the development could cost as little as £91,995 (normal price £114,995). Boasting three bedrooms, a stylish kitchen diner, spacious living room, family bathroom and convenient downstairs cloakroom, Keepmoat's Windsor home offers househunters the chance to live the dream in Bootle.

Just down the road in Anfield, The Parks development also offers buyers the chance to snap up their dream home. A two bedroom Normanby style property on the development will set you back just £92,995 or £74,395 with Help to Buy.

Jen Brown, Regional Sales Manager at Keepmoat, said: "The Regency Park properties are proving really popular, which isn't surprising given the development's location less than three miles from Liverpool city centre. Ideal for growing families or those looking to make their first move into home ownership, both Regency Park in Bootle and The Parks in Anfield boast a range of beautiful high-quality two, three and four bedroom homes.

"And with financial help from the government, getting the keys to your dream property is now easier than you may think."

Put on your dancing shoes for Disney Live!

DISNEY LIVE! Is inviting people to put on their dancing shoes and is asking them to buy tickets for a new, live stage show starring favourite Disney characters.

Disney Live! Mickey's Rockin' Road Show plays at EchoTwo @ Echo Arena from August 1–4 and promises audiences a high-energy, fun packed adventure led by Mickey Mouse and featuring a host of much loved Disney friends.

This live stage spectacular, produced by Feld Entertainment, whisks audiences on a wacky, fun-filled journey with Mickey Mouse, Minnie Mouse, Donald Duck and Goofy as they embark on an 'hilarious' talent search adventure filled with unexpected, exciting encounters and his best buddies. Other characters to appear in the show include Tigger; Cinderella and her conniving stepsisters and Buzz Lightyear, Woody and friends from Toy Story.

Producer Kenneth Feld said: "In Disney Live! Mickey's Rockin' Road Show, fun knows no boundaries.

"Audiences will feel like they're seeing a cartoon come to life as they experience the humour, hijinks, twists and turns of Mickey's road trip and talent show. The only rules are 'cartoon rules,' and anything goes."

Mr Feld comments: "Families will feel like they are travelling alongside Mickey and Minnie as they set off on an exciting theatrical excursion, right in their hometown.

"Disney Live! Mickey's Rockin' Road Show is a combination of hilarious escapades, hip music and modern choreography that fuse together to present the Disney characters like you've never seen them before."

The excitement begins when Mickey and his pals decide to put on a talent show, with Mickey as the director, Minnie as the costume designer, Goofy as the clumsy stagehand and Donald in charge of the big 'Ka-Pow!' Realizing that they need more performers, the troupe embark on a road trip in Mickey's fantastical bus, where they face a series of misadventures and eventually round up a few friends to help put on their show.

Director Jay Smith said: "We want families to feel like they've played as much a part in the show as those on stage, so whether they join Cinderella as she sings Bibbidi-Bobbidi-Boo, bounce along with Tigger to The Whoop-De-Dooper Bounce or rock and roll to songs by the Jonas Brothers and Hannah Montana, there is really something for everyone."

To book tickets log onto www.echoarena.com, or call the Echo Arena Box Office on 0844 8000 400.

Cheesy but fun show with some great music

Review by Ron Ellis

- Sandy Wilson's The Boyfriend
- Maghull Musical Theatre Company
- Southport Little Theatre

THE set of the Riviera promenade made a perfect backdrop for the colourful costumes and, in an unusual touch, the Continental atmosphere was carried over during the set change between Acts 1 and 2 with a Punch & Judy show onstage, a French onion seller cycling down the aisles and members of the cast strolling round the theatre as if sauntering along La Promenade des Anglais.

Hannah Gomersall starred as Polly Browne who is studying at a finishing school for young ladies in Nice, run by Mme Dubonnet (a coquettish performance from Marie Orr).

A messenger boy, Tony (Matthew Casson), invites Polly to the Carnival

Ball. Her millionaire father, Percival Brown (Les Gomersall), has warned her about goldiggers so she pretends to be a secretary. But Tony is really a nobleman's son.

Alexandra Holmes, Claudia Molyneux, Sarah Culshaw, Natalie Metcalfe and Suzanne Morris, found themselves transported way back in time to their teenage years to play the 'perfect young ladies' who are Polly's chums and who have all been proposed to by their beaux (Lee Ashall, Alex McKillop, Dan McWaters and Graham Heap). The boys are eagerly anticipating their answers at the ball.

Tony Adamson excelled as Lord Brockhurst, Tony's father, a man with a wandering eye, watched disapprovingly by his wife, Lady Hilda (Gaynor Hale in Peggy Mount mode).

At the ball, all the pierrots are united with their pierrettes, including Polly's father who turns out to be Mme Dubonnet's old flame.

The Boy Friend has always been one of my favourite musicals. Unlike many others of its generation (Sandy Wilson wrote it in 1953) it doesn't date, possibly because it was written as a send up in the first place, an affectionate pastiche of The Roaring Twenties, but more probably because of the lively jazz-based music that has been so successful in later musicals like Chicago.

Consequently, for me the best thing in the show was the Twenties music, provided by a lively seven piece orchestra directed by Andrew Standeven, and ranging from the romantic ('Fancy Forgetting') to the Charleston, the Riviera and the tango and complemented by the spirited tap and dance routines beautifully choreographed by Betty Hall.

STAR RATING: 7 out of 10. Cheesy but fun with great music.

West End musical coming to Liverpool next year

Adapted from the Oscar winning movie that captured the hearts and imaginations of a generation back in the 90s, Ghost the Musical is a timeless fantasy about the power of love. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14 THE A5036 TRUNK ROAD (HAWTHORNE ROAD TO CROSBY ROAD) (TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2013

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order on the A5036 Trunk Road in the Borough of Sefton in Merseyside to enable resurfacing and general maintenance works to be carried out in safety.

The works are expected to take place over six nights between 2200 hours and 0500 hours during a period starting on Monday 8 July 2013 and ending on Friday 7 September 2013. However works may start and continue between the same times on subsequent nights, or continue until completed.

The Order will ban all traffic from:

- the A5036 Trunk Road westbound carriageway from the centreline of the junction with the A5090 Hawthorne Road to the centreline of the junction of the Trunk Road with Crosby Road, including the circulatory carriageway of the Princess Way roundabout;
 - the A5036 Trunk Road eastbound carriageway from the centreline of the junction with the A565 Crosby Road to the centreline of the junction with the A5090 Hawthorne Road, including the circulatory carriageway of the Princess Way roundabout;
 - turning left from Sefton Street onto the A5036 westbound carriageway;
 - turning left from the A567 Bridge Road onto the circulatory carriageway of the A5036 Princess Way roundabout;
 - turning left from Croxteth Avenue onto the circulatory carriageway of the A5036 Princess Way roundabout;
 - turning left from the A567 Bridge Road onto the circulatory carriageway of the A5036 Princess Way roundabout;
 - turning left from the A5036 Trunk Road eastbound onto Rawson Road;
 - turning left from the A5036 Trunk Road eastbound onto Sandy Road; and
 - turning left from Ash Road onto the A5036 circulatory carriageway of the Princess Way roundabout.
- a) High-sided vehicles wishing to proceed along the A5036 westbound beyond it's junction with Hawthorne Road will be directed left onto an advanced diversion along the A5038 Netherton Way southbound, right onto A5058 Balliol Road westbound to A565 Derby Road and turn right to continue northbound to the roundabout junction with the A5036 where the diversion will end.
- b) High-sided vehicle that miss the advanced diversion or join the A5036 Trunk Road Westbound West of the advanced diversion will be directed to turn right onto the A5090 Hawthorne Road northbound, continue to the roundabout junction with the B5422 Sefton Road, take the final roundabout exit to return southbound along Hawthorne Road back to the junction with the A5036 Trunk Road and turn left to travel eastbound back along the A5036 Trunk Road to the advanced diversion commencing at the junction with the A5038 Netherton Way described at a) above.
- c) All other vehicles wishing to proceed along the A5036 westbound beyond it's junction with Hawthorne Road will be directed to turn left onto Hawthorne Road and continue to the signalised junction with the A566 Linacre Lane, turn right to travel westbound along Linacre Lane and Knowsley Road to A565 Crosby Road and turn right to follow the road to the A565/A5036 roundabout where the diversion will end.
- d) Northbound traffic on Hawthorne Road wishing to turn left to join the A5036 westbound will be directed to continue, crossing the Trunk Road to the B5422 Hawthorne Road/Sefton Road roundabout, take the final roundabout exit to return southbound along Hawthorne Road to return to the junction with the A5036 Trunk Road and turn left to travel eastbound along the A5036 Trunk Road to the junction with A5038 to join the diversion route described at b) or c) above as appropriate.
- e) High-sided vehicles wishing to join the A5036 eastbound between it's junctions with the A565 Crosby Road and B5422 Hawthorne Road will be directed to join the A565 Crosby Road and continue southbound past the roundabout junction with the A5036 Trunk Road to the junction with the A5058 Balliol Road, turn left and proceed eastbound to the signalised junction with the A5038 Southport Road, turn left onto A5038 Southport Road and continue northbound to return to the junction with the A5036 Trunk Road where the diversion will end.
- f) All other vehicles wishing to join the A5036 eastbound between it's junctions with the A565 Crosby Road and B5422 Hawthorne Road will be directed to join and continue southbound along the A565 Crosby Road past it's roundabout junction with the A5036 Trunk Road to the junction with the A566 Knowsley Road, turn left and continue westbound along Knowsley Road and Linacre Lane to the signalised junction with the A590 Hawthorne Road, turn left and continue northbound to the junction with the A5036 Trunk Road where the diversion will end.
- g) Traffic wishing to turn left onto the A5036 westbound from Sefton Street will be escorted through the works, as will traffic wishing to turn into Sefton Street from the Trunk Road.
- h) Traffic wishing to join the A5036 Trunk Road from the A567 Bridge Road eastbound will be directed to turn left onto Penrhyn Avenue southbound, left onto Palmerston Drive westbound, right onto A567 Linacre Road southbound to join one of the main eastbound or westbound diversion routes (for high-sided vehicles at the junction with the A5058 Balliol Road, or for all other vehicles at the junction with the A566 Knowsley Road/Linacre Lane). Conversely, traffic wishing to access A567 Bridge Road from the A5036 will follow this reverse diversion route from A567 Linacre Lane/Stanley Road having first negotiated the appropriate main diversion route at a), b), c), e) or f) above.
- i) Traffic wishing to join the circulatory carriageway of the A5036 Trunk Road roundabout from Croxteth Avenue northbound will be directed to the Southern end of Croxteth Avenue and to turn left onto Palmerston Drive where it can join and follow the diversion route described at h) above. Conversely, traffic wishing to access Croxteth Avenue from the A5036 Trunk Road will be directed to follow this diversion in reverse having first negotiated the diversion route described at h) above in similar reverse order.
- j) Traffic wishing to join the A5036 Trunk Road from Bridge Road westbound at Princess Way roundabout will be directed left onto an advance diversion at Sandy Lane and then join the A5036 westbound to travel to the roundabout with the A565 Crosby Road where the appropriate diversion described at e) or f) above.
- k) Traffic on the A5036 wishing to access the western extent of Bridge Road beyond the Princess Way roundabout will be directed to continue along the appropriate A5036 main diversion as appropriate until the junction of the A565 Crosby Road with Seaforth Road, turn (left or right as appropriate) onto Seaforth Road and continue into A567 Bridge Road where the diversion will end.
- l) Traffic wishing to access Rawson Road from A5036 Trunk Road Eastbound should turn left from A565 Crosby Road Southbound into Claremont Road and then right into Rawson Road where the diversion will end.
- m) Traffic wishing to access Sandy Road from A5036 Trunk Road eastbound should turn left from A565 Crosby Road into Claremont Road and then continue at the roundabout into Sandy Road where the diversion will end. This diversion should be followed in reverse order for traffic wishing to leave Sandy Lane to join the A5036 eastbound in order to join A565 Crosby Road Southbound and join the appropriate diversion route described at e) or f) above.
- n) Traffic wishing to join the A5036 Trunk Road Eastbound at Princess Way roundabout from Ash Road will be directed to take Beach Road and continue into Tattersall Road, Jubilee Road and then Linacre Road in order to join one of the main diversion routes as described at e) or f) above as appropriate. Conversely, traffic wishing to access Ash Road should follow this diversion in reverse order after taking the appropriate diversion route to arrive at A567 Linacre Road. However, the underbridge between Tattersall Road and Jubilee Road has a clearance of 3.4m and so high-sided vehicles should stop and wait for a marshal to escort them through the works.

The prohibitions will apply only during such times and to such extent as will be indicated by traffic signs and will not apply to vehicles being used for emergency purposes by the police, fire and rescue or ambulance services, or to vehicles being used in connection with the works, or by traffic officers. The Order comes into force on 7 July 2013 and has a maximum duration of eighteen months.

PRAYER

THANK YOU Saint Jude. More prayers needed. JH (42857)

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Never known to fail.

O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, faithful Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this necessity, O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother, O Holy Mary Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in my necessity.

(Make Request).

There are none that can withstand your powers. Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 Times).

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3 times).

Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. L.J.H.

This prayer must be said for three days and after that the request will be granted and the prayer must be published. 42122

DEAR SACRED HEART OF JESUS

In the past I have asked for many favours. This time I ask for one special favour. (mention it)

Take it dear heart of Jesus and place it within your own broken heart where your Father sees it. Then in your merciful eyes it will become your favour, not mine.

Amen

Say this prayer for three days, promise publication and your favour will be granted. Never to be failed.

HOLY SPIRIT

You, who make me see everything and show me the way to reach my ideals. You, who gave the Divine Gift to forgive and forget all that is done to me. I, in this short dialogue, want to thank You for everything and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from You no matter how great the material desires may be. I want to be with You and my loved ones in their perpetual glory. To that end, and submitting to God's Holy Will, I ask You (mention your request).

This prayer must be said for three consecutive days. After the third day the request will be granted no matter how difficult it may be. Promise to publish the entire dialogue as a condition of having your request granted.

Champion MOTORS

Plethora of classic cars on show at Cholmondeley Pageant of Power

Life On Cars

www.lifeoncars.blogspot.com

THE sight, sound and smell of supercars strutting their stuff at a stately home in Cheshire proved a bombardment for the senses last weekend.

It's that wonderful time of year when the sun tries its best to break through the cloud, scores of mouthwatering motors emerge from hibernation, and enterprising petrolheads bring them all together in fields and parks across the north west.

It is, if you're really into wandering around looking at automotive exotica, entirely possible to end up at a car show every single weekend because there are so many of them across the north west, to the point where you have to start being picky about which ones you go to!

The Cholmondeley Pageant of Power, however, is one I'll always put down in my diary, because it's a bombardment to the automotive senses.

If you haven't been – and you should, because it's only an hour away in the car, in the greener bits of deepest Cheshire – then you're missing out on a treat.

In a nutshell, it involves taking over the grounds of a stately home, turning it into a sort of improvised racetrack and then setting off some of the world's most exciting cars around it to see how fast they can go.

Not only can you get up close to Ferraris and Bugattis and scary Group B rally cars, but you can watch them burning rubber and going flat out too.

I tried totting up the value of the various bits of automotive exotica parked up in the paddock but I lost count when I got to the trio of Le Mans-winning Bentleys – and instead just immersed myself in how stunning these bits of motoring beauty were.

I'd try and listen to the loudspeakers for more information from the commentator, but every 30 seconds or so he'd be drowned out by the sound of a Ford GT40 roaring past.

Then, if you traipsed past the food stalls and hunted down the rally sections, you could decide whether you'd prefer a Ford Escort RS1800 or a Group B Audi Quattro in your dream garage!

The spectacle of seeing, hearing and even smelling these incredible machines makes the Pageant of Power what it is, and it was great that thousands of people were enjoying it alongside me, even when it was chucking it down with rain.

If you managed to make it to Cholmondeley last weekend, you'll know why I rate it as one of the best motoring events not just in the north west, but in the whole country. If you didn't, make sure you jot the dates of next year's event down in your diary.

It really is that good.

Tell us what you think!

A Clio that’s easy on your eye and your cash

The Clio GT Line invites you to play spot the difference with its Renaultsport brother

Report by David Simister

If you like the look of the latest Renaultsport Clio but can’t afford the insurance and fuel bills then you might be interested in a more affordable alternative. The Clio GT Line looks, to the casual observer, strikingly similar to the more glamorous hot hatch model but – because it only offers up 120bhp instead of the 200bhp of its turbocharged sibling – is cheaper to buy, run and insure. Renault said in a statement: “With 120hp turbocharged power on tap, allied to much of the hot hatch style and features from the high-selling range’s halo model, but considerably lower running and purchase costs, the French marque is looking for it to have broad customer appeal.”

It’s also worth noting, if you think it’s a bit of a sheep in wolf’s clothing, that it shares one crucial characteristic with the Renaultsport range-topper; the company has fitted it with the same sport chassis settings, which should ensure it’s a joy through the corners. The Clio GT Line, which starts at £17,395, is available to buy from July

The fresh face of Insignia

Vauxhall has freshened up its family-focused Insignia by treating it to a series of subtle styling tweaks and a helping of new gadgets. The company said the range of saloons and estates, which have been on sale since 2008, will be given a refreshed exterior look, a redesigned set of controls inside, and a new entertainment console which now connects the car to the internet. A spokesman for Vauxhall said: “Since its launch in 2008, the Insignia has largely dominated the mid-size sector and launched the eye-catching design philosophy that has permeated all subsequent new Vauxhalls. “The Insignia’s classic exterior lines remain for the new range, with only subtle enhancements made to its styling, but inside there are important changes to the car’s instrument cluster and centre console design, as well as improvements to its control-functionality.” The newly revamped Insignia range, which starts at £16,279, goes on sale across Britain in October.

Camaro gets extensive revamp

BE the hero of your own road movie by getting yourself behind the wheel of Chevrolet’s newly-revised Camaro. The company said its coupe and convertible, which come with either V6 or V8 petrol engines, have been treated to an extensive redesign.

Chevrolet UK said: “The new Camaro represents the most significant redesign since the introduction of the fifth-generation Camaro as a concept car in 2006. The newly restyled Camaro thunders into Chevrolet showrooms across the UK in November.

E-HOGFATHER SET TO SHAKE UP ONLINE TRADING IN 2013

The world is changing, and whether we like it or not the message for the 21st Century is adapt or die. Luckily human ingenuity knows a thing or two about adapting.

Yeti Edwards of The Hogfather Motorcycles in Southport has done just that and over the course of the last two years has stolen a march on the rest of the industry, investing a massive amount of knowledge and experience into developing the ultimate e-commerce system for the motorcycle sector.

The result is Hog Ecom Shop, or HES for short : a framework built around the digital, searchable versions of the catalogues all motorcycle owners are familiar with, covering everything from day to day replacement, maintenance and service parts, to bespoke rebuild, tuning and customisation parts for all motorcycles, with the ability to select any number of items from any catalogue and pay for it as a single transaction which can then be shipped as a single consignment, benefitting from reduced postal costs - subject to lead times on some items, because it's not a warehouse so much as a forwarding operation between trade distributors and consumers.

The following catalogues will be online and operational: Custom Chrome, Zodiac, Motorcycle Storehouse, Mid-USA, Bike-It, Torq Distribution, MAG Europe, S&S Cycles, W&W, Mid West, Oxford Products, Parts Europe amongst others - a massive and diverse range supporting all types of motorcycles (Cruisers, Sports, Streetfighters, Customs, Tourers, Racing, Commuter, on road/off road and even Scooters) whether from America, Europe or the Far East, which can be built upon in the future : a one stop e-shop.

There are plans to introduce a loyalty bonus scheme to look after repeat customers, and recognition that success depends on meeting their commitment to expedient delivery at the best price.

To celebrate ten years since Yeti first set out his plans for The Hogfather Motorcycles, albeit under a different name - and as an introductory offer to Champion readers - he is offering a 10% discount up to the end of June! To claim your discount, simply enter CHAMPION when prompted. The discount will then be applied to your invoice total before payment is taken.

The site will be accessible through:

Northern stay on top after three-run victory

NORTHERN remain in top spot in the Liverpool Competition after a low scoring closely fought three run home win over Wallasey.

After electing to bat the hosts skipper James Cole (61) was the only batsman able to offer much with the willow as his side were bowled out for 118, with Neil Cross (4-5), Chris Bourne (3-34) and Matt Wilcox (3-44) all in fine form with the ball. In reply the visitors looked to be cruising on 81-4 before a remarkable spell of bowling from Jack Woosey (5-35) and Tom Sephton (4-53) reduced them to 115-8 then 115 all out, with Woosey claiming two wickets in two balls to secure victory.

Ormskirk lie in fourth place after a 74 run home win over bottom placed Highfield. After electing to bat the hosts were bowled out for 210 in 49 overs, with Matt Morgan (40), Ian Robinson (34), John Armstrong (29) and Matty Glazer (27) in good touch, whilst James Taylor was the pick of the visitors bowling attack with 4-54.

In reply 54 from Michael Gaskell gave Highfield a solid start (72-1) before Martyn Farrell (5-29) and Nick Caunce (4-36) turned the match on its head and helped dismiss the visitors for 136 in 47.2 overs.

Nine out caught as Bootle fall well short

FIRWOOD Bootle supporters were left seriously disgruntled last Saturday when their team failed to draw inspiration from the previous weekend's win over Ormskirk and served up a lamentable display at Maghull.

The home side batted first on winning the toss at Old Hall Field, openers Greg Gillespie (74) and Donovan Pell setting the tone for the rest of the innings with a stand of 55.

The Bootle bowling was ineffectual and Maghull extracted full retribution with two further substantial partnerships of 59 for the second wicket (Gillespie and Sairaj Patel) and 60 for the fourth (Chris Tong and Jonathan Ring).

Sabah Ghaus clubbed a quick-26 at the death and Maghull declared at 232-5 after 59 overs, leaving the visitors with 48 in return.

Bootle needed at least one big innings from their top order but it never materialized as no fewer than nine men got themselves out caught, most of them playing poorly executed shots. There was a glimmer of hope when Jordan Evans (38) and Glenn Aitken (32) raised 65 together for the fifth wicket, but once that was broken the innings hurried to its conclusion at 180, the last five wickets adding only 35 to the total.

The dangerous Ghaus captured 4-36, and Maghull had 28 balls to spare when they won by 52 runs.

Bootle visit New Brighton on Saturday and host Colwyn Bay in the National Twenty20 Knockout Cup on Sunday. Maghull host Ormskirk on Saturday.

Nicola Smith

Name: Nicola Smith

Course: Level 2 and Level 3 Theatrical and Media Make-up.

Where are they now?

Co - founder of "Peaches and Cream" make-up salon and make-up brand.

How has the course helped?

Nicola joined Hugh Baird College on the Level 2 Theatrical and Media Make-up course before progressing to Level 3 of the course. After successfully completing her qualifications, Nicola and her classmate Kate Donnelly took the brave decision to go it alone and opened the vibrant Peaches and Cream make-up salon. The city centre based salon has been a huge success and the girls haven't looked back. The salon's ethos is to make every one of their customers feel like a celebrity about to walk out on the red carpet.

Nicola says: "Everyone on my course was so enthusiastic and my tutors were exceptional. They had all worked out in the industry and were passionate about developing our skills. They really gave me the confidence and self belief to express myself and succeed. The facilities at college were also first rate and I gained valuable experience by dealing with customers in the College's operational salon. I learnt up to the minute industry techniques and it was these skills that gave me the base to realise my dream of running my own business!"
